

Dear all who are interested,

We herewith invite you to join the Days of Peace and Reconciliation in the Memorial of former Concentration Camp Buchenwald (near Weimar, Germany), to take place on August 27 – September 01, 2022.

Our Vision

We feel the need to turn to our personal and collective wounds. We see this turning-to as loving action on the way to inner and outer peace.

- We hear the call to acknowledge the wounds of our time, to learn from them and to heal them where possible. This strengthens our determination not to cause new injuries.
- We recognize our fears, defense strategies and indifference, and let arise from this the strength for acting courageously.
- We commit ourselves to embody the insight that the recognition of differences and diversity enables us to interconnect.
- We want to understand what causes war and what creates peace, so that we can act peacefully.
- We perceive ourselves as part of a learning community that offers space for sharing and mutual support, recovering and reconnecting to the fullness of life.

This is how we contribute to peaceful vividness.

If this vision inspires you, you are welcome to share the PeaceDays* in Buchenwald with us.

* Even though these days we respectfully continue the tradition of the ZenPeacemaker Bearing Witness Retreats in memorials and other wounded places, we have decided not to call them "retreats". Rather, we want to emphasize that we are not retreating, but exposing ourselves to exposed places to make collective peace and serve our amazing, challenging, beautiful world.

Our motivation

We - Reiner, Dorle, Judith and Kathleen, the initiators and spiritholders of this event - experienced in Retreats in Auschwitz (and other places of suffering) that a place of atrocity can turn into a "wake-up space", a space for learning, love, and connectedness. That motivates us to create situations like the PeaceDays in Buchenwald as spaces for people to experience this "wonderous transformation".

We estimate the unifying as well as the diverse aspects of our spiritual traditions - ZenPeacemakers, Ridhwan School and our Jewish-Christian backgrounds. They motivate us to explore how we can encourage each other on our personal pathway, and how we may wake up together.

We are also inspired by the European transboundary dimension of our collaboration (Danish-Dutch-German) – even more so as we live in times of a war on European ground, again.

Personal backgrounds

Dorle, Reiner and Kathleen met on the grounds of Auschwitz in 2011 as participants of the ZenPeacemakers' Bearing Witness Retreat with Bernie Glassman Roshi. This deep experience created a strong bond among them.

Reiner has participated in two Sesshins at Buchenwald Memorial in 2009 and 2010 and in the ZenPeacemakers Bearing Witness Retreat in Ruanda 2014.

Kathleen joined the annual ZenPeacemakers Auschwitz Retreat again in 2014 and 2015.

Dorle and Judith organized a Retreat in Auschwitz in 2014 for Ridhwan School students.

In 2018, the four of us organized and held PeaceDays at Buchenwald Memorial for the first time with a group of 15 participants.

A first schedule draft

Arrival: Saturday, August 27 at International Yung People's Center IYPC. There will be an informal welcome and get-together in the afternoon for those who arrive early. "Official" opening session after dinner.

From Sunday, August 28, to Wednesday, August 31, there will be a similar frame for each day:

- Morning meditation outside (if raining, inside).
- After breakfast, there is the opportunity to be part of working programs at the Memorial. This may be helping in projects at the Memorial Path of the former Buchenwald-Bahn (Railway from Weimar up to the Camp - kind of bodily demanding work, outside), or assisting in restoring items found on the grounds (at the restoration workshop - more easy work, inside).
- After lunch on Sunday to Wednesday, we co-create special spiritual services in or outside the Camp (like chanting names of victims, guided tours...).
- After dinner, we practice (walking) meditation, Inquiry, Council in small groups in different places on the Campgrounds, each guided by a member of our circle.

Whenever it fits and is wanted during the days of our stay, Kathleen will offer creative writing opportunities to do journaling on our experience.

On Wednesday after dinner we will have a special ending program outside.

On Thursday, September 1 after breakfast, there will be a short closing celebration. Then, departure.

General considerations

- For all of us it is highly challenging to give our full commitment to 'abiding where we are' in the sense of quiet attention and mindfulness, to let the place be our teacher. It is the responsibility of each of us - and all of us together - to keep that in mind and body. We hope that the program we designed will serve this aim. If you feel you need time on your own, feel free to skip parts of the program after letting us know.
- If you want to contribute to the name-reciting Ceremonies, please bring a list with names of people who suffered during the Holocaust (or later). If you do not have names from your own family or friends, you can download files with names of victims here: Yad Vashem
- We will create a kind of altar in the middle of our meditation space. You are invited to contribute to its unique shape with symbols, pictures, and items that are meaningful to you.
- Also, if you want, you can take some candles with you and burn a candle somewhere on the site.
- For any logistical questions, Reiner is the best person to ask.

Registration

Please consider responsibly if you are open to such a complex experience. When you are decided to participate, please fill in the Registration Form.
